Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer video file depicts a young girl being raped by a man. It promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes, the use of violence to compel a person to participate in sexual conduct, and the infliction of extreme cruelty (s3(2)(a), s3(2)(b) and s3(2)(f) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993). It is therefore deemed to be objectionable. While the classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as per the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, it is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2)(a) of the FVPC Act are deemed objectionable. The classification is also a reasonable limitation that reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
